Note by the International Bureau:

The bibliographic data in respect of international designs are identified by INID codes (INID stands for “Internationally agreed Numbers for the Identification of (bibliographic) Data”), that is, the codes of WIPO Standard ST.80 (“Recommendation Concerning Bibliographic Data Relating to Industrial Designs”) and WIPO Standard ST.3 (“Recommended Standard Two-Letter Codes for the Representation of States, Other Entities and International Organizations”). The lists of WIPO Standard ST.80 and ST.3 are available at: <http://www.wipo.int/standards/en/pdf/03-80-01.pdf> and at: <http://www.wipo.int/standards/en/pdf/03-03-01.pdf> respectively. The dates are given in standardized dd/mm/yyyy format.
