

notify him that the Government of Canada deposited, on March 26, 1970, its instruments of accession dated March 16, 1970, to the Paris Convention of March 20, 1883, for the Protection of Industrial Property as revised at Stockholm on July 14, 1967, with a declaration to the effect that its accession shall not apply to Articles 1 to 12.

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 20(2)(c) and (3), the Stockholm Act of the said Convention will enter into force, with respect to Canada, three months after the date of this notification, that is, on July 7, 1970.

Geneva, April 7, 1970.

Paris Notification No. 18

MALAWI

Accession to the Stockholm Act of the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property

*Notification of the Director of BIRPI to the Governments
of the Union Countries*

The Director of the United International Bureaux for the Protection of Intellectual Property (BIRPI) presents his compliments to the Minister for Foreign Affairs of and, in accordance with the provisions of the above international instrument adopted at Stockholm, has the honor to notify him that the Government of the Republic of Malawi deposited, on March 11, 1970, its instrument of accession dated February 18, 1970, of the Paris Convention of March 20, 1883, for the Protection of Industrial Property, as revised at Stockholm on July 14, 1967.

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 20(2)(c) and (3), the Stockholm Act of the said Convention will enter into force, with respect to the Republic of Malawi, three months after the date of this notification, that is, on June 25, 1970.

Geneva, March 25, 1970.

Paris Notification No. 17

LUXEMBOURG

Notification Concerning the Application of the Provisional Clauses of the Stockholm Act of the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property

*Notification of the Director of BIRPI to the Governments
of the Union Countries*

The Director of the United International Bureaux for the Protection of Intellectual Property (BIRPI) presents his compliments to the Minister for Foreign Affairs of and, in accordance with the provisions of the above international instrument adopted at Stockholm, has the honor to notify him of the notification deposited by the Government of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg in which that Government indicates its desire to avail itself of the provisions of Article 30(2) of the Paris Convention.

This notification entered into force on the date of its receipt, that is, on March 20, 1970.

In pursuance of the said Article, the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, which is a member of the Paris Union, may, for five years from April 26, 1970, date of entry into force of the Convention Establishing the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), exercise the rights provided for in Articles 13 to 17 of the Stockholm Act of the Paris Convention, as if it were bound by those Articles.

Geneva, April 21, 1970.

Paris Notification No. 19

Madrid Union (Marks)

HUNGARY

Declaration under Article 3^{bis} of the Nice Act

According to a communication received from the Swiss Federal Political Department the following note was addressed by the Embassies of the Swiss Confederation in the countries of the Paris Union to the Ministries of Foreign Affairs of those countries:

“By a note dated March 31, 1970, the Embassy of the Hungarian People's Republic at Berne informed the Federal Political Department of a declaration according to which the Hungarian People's Republic invokes the benefits of Article 3^{bis}, paragraph (1), of the Madrid Agreement for the International Registration of Trade Marks of April 14, 1891, as revised at Nice on June 15, 1957.

In conformity with Article 3^{bis}, paragraph (2), of the said Agreement, the declaration of Hungary will take effect on October 30, 1970.”

LUXEMBOURG

Notification Concerning the Application of the Provisional Clauses of the Stockholm Act of the Madrid Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Marks

*Notification of the Director of BIRPI to the Governments
of the Union Countries*

The Director of the United International Bureaux for the Protection of Intellectual Property (BIRPI) presents his compliments to the Minister for Foreign Affairs of and, in accordance with the provisions of the above international instrument adopted at Stockholm, has the honor to