THE HAGUE AGREEMENT (1960 Act)

State Novelty Examination Fee under Article 15: Republic of Moldova

1. Users of the Hague Agreement are informed that, with effect from September 1, 1998, the designation of the Republic of Moldova in an application for international deposit will be subject to the payment of a State novelty examination fee. That fee, which is not additional to the ordinary State fee, is 60 Swiss francs for one design and 12 Swiss francs for each additional design contained in the same deposit.
2. An updated version of the application form for an international deposit will soon be made available to users and will also be accessible on the Internet at the following address:
