

Hague Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Industrial Designs

Declarations made under Articles 11(1)(a) and 17(3) of the 1999 Act and Rule 12(1)(c)(i) of the Common Regulations (level of the standard designation fee concerning international applications): Brunei Darussalam

1. On November 27, 2013, the Director General of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) received from the Government of Brunei Darussalam, the following declarations made under the Geneva (1999) Act of the Hague Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Industrial Designs and the Common Regulations under the 1999 Act and the 1960 Act of the Hague Agreement:

- the declaration referred to in Article 11(1)(a) of the 1999 Act, whereby the maximum period for the deferment of the publication of an industrial design where Brunei Darussalam is designated in an international registration is 12 months from the filing date or, where priority is claimed, from the priority date;
- the declaration as required under Article 17(3)(c) of the 1999 Act, specifying that the maximum duration of protection provided for by the legislation of Brunei Darussalam in respect of industrial designs is 15 years; and
- the declaration for the application of level three of the standard designation fee, under Rule 12(1)(c)(i) of the Common Regulations.

2. These declarations will enter into force in respect of Brunei Darussalam on February 27, 2014.

3. Annexed is a table containing, in respect of each Contracting Party, indications of the Act or Acts binding it and the type of designation fee payable for the designation of that Contracting Party. This table, which already takes into account the above declaration under Rule 12(1)(c)(i) of the Common Regulations, will be attached, on February 27, 2014, to form DM/1, which is for applications for international registration and is available on the WIPO web site at <http://www.wipo.int/hague/en/forms/>.
