

Hague Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Industrial Designs

Individual Designation Fee: Russian Federation

1. In accordance with Rule 28(2)(b) of the Common Regulations under the 1999 Act and the 1960 Act of the Hague Agreement, the Director General of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) has established, after consultation with the Federal Service for Intellectual Property (ROSPATENT), the amounts of the individual designation fee which must be paid in connection with an international application in which the Russian Federation is designated, and in connection with the renewal of an international registration designating the Russian Federation:

Individual Designation Fee		Amounts (in Swiss francs)
International Application	– for the first design	206
	– for each additional design*	43
Renewal	First renewal	327
	Second renewal	802
	Third renewal	1,192
	Fourth renewal	2,074

2. The declaration relating to the individual designation fee made by the Russian Federation will enter into force on February 28, 2018.

February 12, 2018

* The Russian Federation has made a declaration under Article 13(1) of the 1999 Act of the Hague Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Industrial Designs whereby, in accordance with its law, industrial designs that are the subject of the same international application shall meet the requirement of the unity of a single creative concept.