PROTOCOL RELATING TO THE MADRID AGREEMENT CONCERNING THE INTERNATIONAL REGISTRATION OF MARKS

Jersey, Anguilla and Cayman Islands

1. The Patent Office of the United Kingdom has drawn the attention of the International Bureau of WIPO to the new Jersey legislation on trademarks, the Trade Marks (Jersey) Law 2002, Article 13 of which provides that an international mark that is protected in the United Kingdom is also protected in Jersey, without the need for re-registration.
2. The full text of this law (reference number L15/2000) is available at the following address: www.jerseylegalinfo.je.
3. It is also understood that an international mark that is protected in the United Kingdom may be protected in Anguilla and in the Cayman Islands upon re-registration with the competent local administration. The contact details of the respective administrations are:
