OAPI TO ACT AS RECEIVING OFFICE

As from 2 January 2001, the African Intellectual Property Organization (OAPI) will assume the functions of receiving Office. It will be a competent receiving Office for nationals and residents of States that are members of OAPI. It is recalled that, up until now, the only competent receiving Office for applicants from those States has been the International Bureau.

When information on the filing of international applications with OAPI as receiving Office becomes available, it will be published in the PCT Newsletter.

Non-working days of the International Bureau

The non-working days of the International Bureau during the end-of-year holiday period, in addition to the weekends, will be 25 and 26 December 2000 and 1 and 2 January 2001. The International Bureau will be open for business on 27, 28 and 29 December 2000.

the Fee calculation sheet and Notes thereto (annex to the Request Form), have been modified with effect from 1 January 2001.

The modified Request Form includes TR Turkey in the list of "EP European Patent" States under Regional Patent, following its accession to the European Patent Convention, and the Notes to Box No. V have been modified to take into account the fact that utility models are available in Belize.

The Fee Calculation Sheet, which is annexed to the Request Form, has been modified to take into account the reduction, effective 1 January 2001, in the maximum number of designation fees payable, from 8 to 6. The Notes to the fee calculation sheet have been modified accordingly.

The other sheets of the Request Form have not been modified except for the inclusion on each sheet of the date of reprinting.

Modified versions of the second sheet of the Request Form (which includes Box No. V) in English and French are included in this issue as white tear-out sheets for insertion in the PCT Applicant's Guide, Vol. I/B, Annex X. Also included in this issue are modified versions of the second sheet in German and Spanish. The inserted sheets may be photocopied and used, as from 1 January 2001, along with other sheets of the Request Form which remain unchanged.

Demand Form (PCT/IPEA/401)

The Demand Form has not been modified except for the inclusion of the date of reprinting (January 2001) on each sheet.

How to obtain copies of the Request and Demand Forms

Consolidated versions, in English and French, of the modified Request and Demand Forms, together with their respective accompanying notes, will be included in the next update of the PCT Applicant's Guide, Vol. I/B, Annexes X and Y. As from the end of December 2000, copies of the Request Form in English, French, German and Spanish can also be obtained, free of charge, from receiving Offices and the International Bureau, and copies of the Demand Form in those languages can also be obtained, free of charge, from receiving Offices, International Preliminary Examining Authorities and the International Bureau. Due to translation requirements, there may be a slight delay in the availability of those forms in other languages.

The January 2001 versions of the Request and Demand Forms in English, French, German and Spanish will also be included, in PDF format, on the WIPO Internet site (<http://www.wipo.int>) at the beginning of January 2001.

PUBLICATION SCHEDULE AND NON-WORKING DAYS AT THE
INTERNATIONAL BUREAU DURING

Closing dates of the PCT Information Line

The PCT Information Line will not be in operation from Saturday, 23 December 2000 to Tuesday, 2 January 2001, inclusive. It will commence operations again at 9.00 a.m., Geneva time, on Wednesday, 3 January 2001.

Note, however, that if you call the PCT Information Line (telephone: (41-22) 338 83 38) during the holiday period, there will be a facility for leaving messages and a telephone number will be given for use in case of matters requiring urgent attention.

Publication schedule and technical preparations for publication

The PCT Gazette and the PCT pamphlets (published PCT applications) will, during the forthcoming holiday period and shortly thereafter, be published as usual on Thursdays, that is on 21 and 28 December 2000, and on 4 January 2001. Note however that, for international applications which are going to be published on those dates, and on certain dates shortly after the holiday period, the completion of technical preparations for publication will take place earlier than the usual 15 days before publication. The table, below, gives the schedule for the publications which will be affected.

Any applicant who, in respect of an international application to be published during the above-mentioned period, wishes to make any change which should be taken into account for the purposes of international publication, should be aware of the above-mentioned dates. For example, if the applicant wishes to withdraw, in sufficient time to prevent international publication of, the international application, a designation or a priority claim under PCT Rules 90bis.1(c), 90bis.2(e) or 90bis.3(e), or if the applicant wishes to amend any of the claims under PCT Article 19 and the time limit under PCT Rule 46.1 has expired, or to change an indication concerning the applicant, agent, common representative or inventor under PCT Rule 92bis—any such notice must reach the International Bureau prior to the date of completion of technical preparations if the changes are to be reflected in the international publication. It is, as always, strongly recommended that applicants notify the International Bureau of any change as early as possible before completion of technical preparations, preferably by fax, bearing in mind that more time will be needed if the International Bureau has to take any action in connection with the matter before the completion of technical preparations for publication.

EPO CHANGES CONDITIONS FOR ENTITLEMENT TO 75% REDUCTION IN PCT SEARCH AND EXAMINATION FEES

On 11 October 2000, the Administrative Council of the European Patent Organisation made the following decision concerning the 75% reduction in the European Patent Office (EPO) fees for international search and preliminary examination in respect of international applications filed by applicants from certain States:

"Article 1

The fees for the international search and the preliminary examination carried out on international applications under Article 2, items 2 and 19, of the Rules relating to Fees shall be reduced by 75% if the application is filed by a natural person who is a national and a resident of a state which is not a contracting state of the European Patent Convention and which fulfils the requirements for the corresponding reduction of fees payable to the International Bureau of WIPO (decision of the PCT Assembly, 25 September to 3 October 1995).

"Article 2

The decisions of 15 December 1994 (OJ EPO 1995, 14) and 14 June 1996 (OJ EPO 1996, 396) shall be set aside.

"Article 3

This decision shall enter into force on 1 November 2000 and shall apply to all international applications filed on or after that date."

Therefore, for international applications filed on or after 1 November 2000, it will no longer be possible to obtain the 75% reduction in the EPO's fees for international search and preliminary examination if any of the applicants is a legal person. Any natural person must be a national and resident of a State which fulfils the requirements for the corresponding reduction of fees payable for the benefit of the International Bureau (that is, those States whose per capita national income is below 3,000 US dollars according to the average per capita national income figures used by the United Nations for determining its scale of assessments for the contributions payable for the years 1995, 1996 and 1997), provided that the State concerned is not a Contracting State of the European Patent Convention.

Note that the form which is currently used to request the fee reduction (EPO Form 1223/A) will no longer be required for international applications filed on or after 1 November 2000. The receiving Office concerned or the EPO as competent International Preliminary Examining Authority will ascertain whether the fee reduction is applicable on the basis of the indications concerning the applicant in the Request Form or the Demand Form, respectively.

NEW MEMBER STATE OF OAPI THAT IS NOT A PCT CONTRACTING STATE

Equatorial Guinea has acceded to the Bangui Agreement and will become a member State of OAPI on 23 November 2000. Note, however, that since that State is not a Contracting State of the PCT, it cannot be designated in PCT applications for the purposes of an OAPI patent.

The phrase "... and any other State ..." which appears at the end of the list of OAPI States in Box No. V of the Request Form will not cover Equatorial Guinea since that phrase applies only if the State concerned is a member State of OAPI and a Contracting State of the PCT. Any addition of Equatorial Guinea in Box No. V will be deleted ex officio by the receiving Office.

NEW LAYOUT FOR FRONT PAGES OF PCT PAMPHLETS

As from the publication of 30 November 2000, the layout of the front page of published international applications (PCT pamphlets) and, to some extent, that of the corresponding bibliographic data included in Section I of the PCT Gazette will change.

The changes will facilitate the further development of the automated production of the "standardized front page" (as referred to in PCT Rule 48.2(a)(i)) of each PCT pamphlet, which is becoming essential in view of the increasing volume of PCT pamphlets to be published, and which will be used for the purposes of electronic publication as well as paper-based publication.

The new layout takes into account various observations and comments which have been received from certain PCT Offices/Authorities and non-governmental organizations. Some of the most important changes are:

- the full name of the filing and publication languages will be indicated on the front page in connection with INID Codes (25) and (26);
- where applicable, there will be two separate lists of designated States: one for States that are designated for a national patent and one for States that are designated for a regional patent;
- in the vast majority of cases, all types of data, in particular the priority data, list of designated Offices, and names of applicants and/or inventors, will start on the first page where the front page comprises more than one page.

PCT STATISTICS

1 January to 30 September 2000

During the first nine months of 2000, the International Bureau of WIPO received 68,533 international applications filed with PCT receiving Offices worldwide, representing an increase of 25.7% over the same period in 1999. Of those 68,533 applications, 17,804 (26%) were prepared using the PCT-EASY software.

The number of demands for international preliminary examination filed under Chapter II during the same period amounted to 46,534, representing an increase of 20% over the same period in 1999.

PRACTICAL ADVICE

Payment of fees which become due on a day on which the receiving Office is not open for business

Q: I am acting as agent for an applicant who filed an international application on 4 September 2000, claiming the priority of an earlier application filed on 30 December 1999, and designating all PCT Contracting States. The designation fees have not yet been paid, and I would like to know if I will be able to pay the new, lower maximum number of designation fees (six), applicable as from 1 January 2001.

A: The time limit for the payment of the designation fees in your case is, in accordance with PCT Rule 15.4(b)(i), one year from the priority date (the time limit under PCT Rule 15.4(b)(ii) not being applicable since one month from the date of receipt of the application did not expire later than one year from the priority date); therefore, the designation fee should be paid by 30 December 2000. Since it is the time limit under PCT Rule 15.4(b)(i) that applies, the amount payable will be that which is applicable on the date of payment (PCT Rule 15.4(c)), which should, in principle, be on or before 30 December 2000, and should therefore be the current higher maximum number of designation fees (eight). However, the new, lower maximum number of designation fees (six) could be applicable in respect of your international application under certain circumstances, as outlined below.

Since 30 December 2000 falls on a Saturday, a day on which most receiving Offices are not open for business, you would probably not be able to pay the fee on that day. PCT Rule 80.5 "Expiration on a Non-Working Day" covers such a situation, as follows:

"If the expiration of any period during which any document or fee must reach a national Office or intergovernmental organization falls on a day on which such Office or organization is not open to the public for the purposes of the transaction of official business, or on which ordinary mail is not delivered in the locality in which such Office or organization is situated, the period shall expire on the next subsequent day on which neither of the said two circumstances exists."

Therefore, if your receiving Office is not open for business on 30 December 2000, the payment would still be considered to have been received in time if it reaches the receiving Office on the next day after 30 December 2000 on which that Office is open. Bearing in mind that 31 December 2000 and 1 January 2001 (and possibly even 2 January 2001, as indeed is the case for the International Bureau) are also non-working days in many of the PCT Contracting States, your fees may be considered to have been received in time, even if they are received on or after 1 January 2001, depending on which is the first day on which your receiving Office is open for business. If this is the case, that first day would be considered to be the date of payment and the new, lower maximum of six designation fees would be payable. If, however, the fees reach the receiving Office before 30 December 2000, the current, higher maximum of eight designation fees would be payable.

Note that if you pay the maximum of six designation fees too close to the expiration of the time limit for the payment of the designation fee, there is a risk that either your payment will reach the receiving Office before 30 December 2000 or that your payment will be received by the receiving Office later than the first working day in 2001. In the former case, you will receive from the receiving Office an invitation under PCT Rule 16bis.1(b) to pay the missing amount, together with, where applicable, a late payment fee (PCT Rule 16bis.2). In the latter case, according to PCT Rule 16bis.1(d), if your payment is received by the receiving Office before it sends the invitation under PCT

Rule 16bis.1(b), your payment would be considered to have been received in time—no invitation to pay the missing fee would be sent to you and no late payment fee would be charged.

If you plan to pay your fees around the end of year holiday period, it is recommended that you find out which are the days on which your receiving Office is not going to be open for business.

For an explanation on which applications the new maximum number of designation fees will apply to, see the first Editor's Note in the Schedule of Fees as in force from 1 January 2001, which is inserted in this issue.

PCT FEE TABLES

The following Tables show the amounts and currencies of the main PCT fees which are payable to the receiving Offices (ROs) and the International Preliminary Examining Authorities (IPEAs) during the international phase under Chapter I (Tables I(a) and I(b)) and under Chapter II (Table II). Fees which are payable only in particular circumstances are not shown; nor are details of certain reductions and refunds which may be available; such information can be found in the PCT Applicant's Guide, Vol. I/B, Annexes C, D and E. Note that all amounts are subject to change due to variations in the fees themselves or fluctuations in exchange rates. The total amount of the basic fee and designation fee may be reduced by CHF 200 under certain circumstances where the request is prepared using the PCT-EASY software; see footnote 2 for details. A 75% reduction in the basic fee, the supplement per sheet over 30, the designation fee and the handling fee, as well as the transmittal fee payable to the International Bureau as receiving Office, is also available to applicants from certain States; see footnote 3 for details. (Note that if both the CHF 200 reduction and the 75% reduction are applicable, the 75% reduction is calculated after the CHF 200 reduction.) The key to the abbreviations used and the footnotes to the Fee Tables follow Table II.

1 Extension of European patent possible.

2 May only be designated for a regional patent (the "national route" via the PCT has been closed).

Where a State can be designated for a regional patent, the two-letter code for the regional patent concerned is indicated in parentheses (AP = ARIPO patent, EA = Eurasian patent, EP = European patent, OA = OAPI patent).

Important:

This list includes all States that have adhered to the PCT by the date shown in the heading. Any State indicated in bold italics has adhered to the PCT but was not yet bound by the PCT on the date of issue of the latest version of the request form. Where any State has adhered to but is not yet bound by the PCT, the date on which it will become bound is shown in parentheses; it cannot be designated in international applications filed before that date. If the applicant wishes to designate, for the purposes of a national patent, any State which is bound by the PCT on the date on which the international application is filed but which is not listed in the request form, he must add it in Box No. V of the request form and mark the corresponding check-box.

Applicants should always use the latest versions of the request form (PCT/RO/101) and demand form (PCT/IPEA/401), updated versions of which are normally issued twice yearly. The latest versions are dated July 2000. The forms are reproduced in Annexes X and Y, respectively, in Vol. I/B of the PCT Applicant's Guide (July 2000 update), and can be printed from the WIPO Internet site, in PDF format, at: <http://www.wipo.int/eng/pct/forms/index.htm>, or obtained from receiving Offices or the International Bureau, or, in the case of the demand form, also from International Preliminary Examining Authorities. For details on the updated request form, to be used as from 1 January 2001, see cover page.
