CHAPTER V: CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

Rule 13: General Powers of the Chairman

- (1) The Chairman shall declare the opening and closing of the meetings, direct the discussions, accord the right to speak, put questions to the vote, and announce decisions.
- (2) He shall rule on points of order and shall have complete control of the proceedings and over the maintenance of order thereat.
- (3) He may propose limiting the time to be allowed to each speaker, limiting the number of times each delegation may speak on any question, closing the list of speakers, and closing the debate.
- (4) He may propose the suspension or adjournment of the debate on the question under discussion, or the suspension or adjournment of the meeting.

Rule 14: Points of Order

- (1) In the course of a debate, any delegation may raise a point of order. It may not speak at the same time on the substance of the matter under discussion.

(2) The Chairman may limit the time to be allowed to any person speaking on the adjournment or closure of a debate, proposing the suspension or adjournment of the meeting, speaking on the reconsideration of proposals already adopted or rejected, or explaining the vote of his delegation.

(3) When a speaker exceeds the time allotted to him, the Chairman shall call him to order without delay.

(2) He may, however, accord the right of reply if a speech delivered after he has declared the list closed makes it desirable.

Rule 18: Adjournment or Closure of Debate

(1) During the course of a meeting, any delegation may move the adjournment or closure of the debate on the question under discussion, whether or not any other speaker has signified his wish to take part in the discussion.

(2) Such motion shall be immediately debated. In addition to the delegation proposing the motion, one other delegation may speak in favor of the motion, and two against it, after which the motion shall immediately be put to the vote.

(3) If the assembly is in favor of the adjournment or closure, the Chairman shall immediately declare the debate adjourned or closed.

Rule 19: Suspension or Adjournment of the Meeting

(1) During the course of a meeting, any delegation may move its suspension or adjournment.

(2) Such motions shall not be debated, but shall immediately be put to the vote.

- (d) to close the debate on the question under discussion.

(2) The assembly may decide to debate and vote on a proposal only if it is submitted in writing.

(3) Unless it decides otherwise, the assembly shall discuss or vote on a written proposal only if it has been translated and distributed in the languages in which the documents of the body concerned must be submitted.

Rule 22: Withdrawal of Proposals

(1) A proposal may be withdrawn by the delegation which has made it at any time before voting on it has commenced, provided that it has not been amended.

(2) A proposal thus withdrawn may be immediately reintroduced by any other delegation.

Rule 23: Reconsideration of Proposals Adopted or Rejected

(1) When a proposal has been adopted or rejected, it may not be reconsidered unless the assembly so decides by a two-thirds majority.

(2) In addition to the delegation proposing the motion to reconsider, one other delegation may speak in favor of the motion, and two against it, after which the motion shall immediately be put to the vote.

Rule 24: Observers

(1) Observers may take part in debates at the invitation of the Chairman.

(2) They may not submit proposals, amendments or motions.

CHAPTER VI: VOTING

Rule 25: Voting

Proposals and amendments submitted by a delegation shall be put to the vote only if they are supported by at least one other delegation.

Rule 26: Method of Voting in General

Voting shall normally be by a show of hands.

Rule 27: Voting by Roll-Call

(1) Voting shall be by roll-call:

(a) if, when the result of a vote by show of hands is in doubt, the Chairman so decides;

(b) if at least two delegations so request, either before voting takes place or immediately after a vote by show of hands.

(2) The roll shall be called in the alphabetical order of the names in French of the States represented, beginning with the delegation whose name is drawn by lot by the Chairman.

(3) When voting is by roll-call, the vote of each delegation shall be recorded in the report on the session.

Rule 28: Voting by Secret Ballot

(1) All elections and decisions concerning States or individuals shall be voted on by secret ballot if at least two delegations so request.

(2) Voting by secret ballot is governed by special regulations, which form the annex to the present General Rules of Procedure and are an integral part thereof.

Rule 29: Conduct During Voting

After the Chairman has announced the beginning of voting, no one shall interrupt the voting except on a point of order in connection with the actual conduct of such voting.

Rule 30: Division of Proposals and Amendments

(1) Any delegation may move that parts of a proposal or of an amendment be voted upon separately.

(2) If a delegation opposes such motion, permission to speak on the subject shall be given only to one delegation in favor and two delegations against, after which the motion shall be put to the vote.

(3) If the motion for division is carried, all parts of the proposal or of the amendment, separately approved, shall again be put to the vote together as a whole.

(4) If all the operative parts of the proposal or of the amendment have been rejected, the proposal or the amendment shall be considered to have been rejected as a whole.

Rule 31: Voting on Proposals

If two or more proposals relate to the same question, the assembly shall, unless it decides otherwise, vote on the proposals in the order in which they have been submitted.

Rule 32: Voting on Amendments

(1) When an amendment to a proposal is moved, the amendment shall be voted on first. A motion is considered an amendment to a proposal if it adds to, deletes from, or revises part of, that proposal.

(2) When two or more amendments to a proposal are moved, they shall be put to the vote in the order in which their substance is removed from the proposal. If, however, the adoption of any amendment necessarily implies the rejection of any other amendment or of the original proposal, such amendment or proposal shall not be put to the vote.

(3) If one or more amendments are adopted, the proposal as amended shall be put to the vote.

Rule 33: Election for a Single Post

When a single elective place is to be filled and none of the candidates obtains the required majority in the first ballot, additional ballots shall be taken which shall be restricted to the two candidates having obtained the greatest number of votes.

Rule 34: Election for Several Posts

(1) When several elective places are to be filled at one time and in the same conditions, the officers or a nominations committee set up for the purpose may submit to the competent assembly a list containing a number of candidates equal to that of the places to be filled. The procedure provided for in paragraph (2) shall be applied if the assembly does not unanimously accept the list thus proposed.

(2) When several elective places are to be filled at one time and in the same conditions, those candidates obtaining the required majority in the first ballot shall be elected. If the number of candidates obtaining such majority is less than the number of places to be filled, there shall be additional ballots to fill the remaining places. The voting shall then be restricted to the candidates obtaining the greatest number of votes in the previous ballot, to a number which shall not, however, be more than twice the number of places remaining to be filled.

Rule 35: Required Majority

Unless expressly provided otherwise in the applicable treaties or in the present General Rules of Procedure, all decisions shall be made by a simple majority.

Rule 36: Majority and Unanimity. Equally Divided Votes

(1) In determining whether the required majority or unanimity is attained, only votes actually cast shall be taken into consideration. Abstentions shall not be considered votes.

(2) When, on matters other than elections which require a simple majority, a vote is equally divided, the proposal or amendment shall be considered rejected.

Rule 37: Explanations of Votes Cast

(1) The Chairman may allow delegations to explain their votes, either before or after the voting takes place, unless the vote is taken by secret ballot.

(2) Explanations of votes cast shall be recorded in the report on the session.

Rule 38: Chairmen Not Entitled to Vote

(1) No Chairman or Acting Chairman shall vote.

(2) Another member of his delegation may vote for the State he represents.

Rule 39: Observers

Observers shall not have the right to vote.

CHAPTER VII: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

In order to vote, delegations must be properly accredited.

Rule 2

Before the ballot begins, the Chairman shall appoint two tellers from among the delegates present. He shall hand them the list of delegations entitled to vote and, where applicable, the list of candidates.

Rule 3

The Secretariat shall distribute ballot papers and envelopes to the delegations. Ballot papers and envelopes shall be of white paper without distinguishing marks.

Rule 4

The tellers shall satisfy themselves that the ballot box is empty and, having locked it, shall hand the key to the Chairman.

Rule 5

Delegations shall be called in turn by the Secretary of the meeting, in the alphabetical order of the names of the member States in French, beginning with the member State whose name shall have been drawn by lot.

Rule 6

When their names are called, delegations shall hand their ballot papers, in the envelopes, to a teller, who shall place them in the ballot box.

Rule 7

To indicate the recording of each member State's vote, the Secretary of the meeting and one of the tellers shall sign or initial the list in the margin opposite the name of the member State in question.

Rule 8

At the conclusion of the calling, the Chairman shall declare the ballot closed and announce that the votes are to be counted.

Rule 9

When the Chairman has opened the ballot box, the tellers shall check the number of envelopes. If the number is greater or less than that of the voters, the Chairman shall be informed, and shall then declare the vote invalid and announce that it is necessary to reopen the ballot.

Rule 10

One of the tellers shall open the envelopes, one by one, read aloud what is written on the ballot paper, and pass it to the other teller. The votes inscribed on the ballot papers shall be entered on lists prepared for that purpose.

Rule 11

Blank ballot papers shall be considered to be abstentions.

Rule 12

The following shall be considered invalid:

(a) ballot papers on which there are more names than there are States or persons to be elected;

(b) ballot papers in which the voters have revealed their identity, in particular, by apposing their signature or mentioning the name of the member State they represent;

(c) ballot papers which do not give a clear reply to the question asked.

Rule 13

A candidate is entitled to only one vote per ballot paper, even if his name appears more than once thereon.

Rule 14

When the counting of the votes is completed, the Chairman shall announce the results of the ballot in the following order:

number of member States entitled to vote at the session;
number absent;
number of abstentions;
number of invalid ballot papers;
number of votes recorded;
number of votes constituting the required majority;
number of votes for or against the proposal or names of the candidates and number of votes secured by each of them, in descending order of the number of votes.

Rule 15

The Chairman shall announce the decision resulting from the vote. In particular, he shall declare elected those candidates who have obtained the required majority.

Rule 16

Immediately after the announcement of the results of the ballot, the ballot papers shall be burnt in the presence of the tellers.

Rule 17

The lists on which the tellers have recorded the results of the vote shall, after signature by the Chairman and by the tellers, constitute the official record of the ballot, and shall be deposited in the archives of the Organization.

Rule 18

The Chairman of the meeting shall draw the attention of delegations to these Rules whenever a vote is taken by secret ballot.
