Suggestions for the ICANN Community

- Prohibit serial abusers of the DNS from operating new registries
- Create minimum thresholds for rights protection mechanisms
 - Consider and implement the WIPO, IRT and other recommendations
 - Remember rights protection mechanisms protect consumers
 - Discount some of the opinions of detractors of protection mechanisms
- Hold registry operators accountable for abuse
- Provide incentives for registries that operate safely
- Consider strong contractual disincentives for recidivists

- Domain-based brand abuse on the rise in legacy TLDs
- Consumers and brand holders are under attack
- Current protection mechanisms are not effective
- New gTLDs expose new risk
- Take action to make the new extensions to the domain naming system safer for Internet users
