EXPLANATORY NOTES:

1 *OWNERSHIP

The term ownership refers to ownership of the physical copy of the material being lodged with PARADISEC.

It is not a wider claim to the intellectual property or ownership of any traditional knowledge, mythology, personal information or expression which relates to or derives from other objects, individuals or communities contained within the material being lodged.

If the material was written, photographed, drawn, recorded or filmed by you, then you are the creator and owner of the physical copy of the material, or if you have collected, found or inherited the material you are the owner of the physical copy of the material and therefore you or your delegate are in a legal position to enter this agreement.

2. This form should be used when a person wishes to deposit material with PARADISEC to be held in its collections.

3. This form should only be used if you are in the legal position to transfer (see Explanatory Note 1 above) the material to PARADISEC. If any other person or body, apart from yourself, has any rights in this material which would prevent you transferring it to PARADISEC, we would ask you either -

- (i) to negotiate with them, if they approve, an agreement enabling you to deposit the material with PARADISEC; or
- (ii) to consider with them the option of depositing it with PARADISEC on agreed conditions of safe deposit with a limited period of closed access.

4. PARADISEC is a national repository for recorded material related to the indigenous cultures of the region around Australia. Its managing body, the PARADISEC Steering Committee and professional staff take their responsibilities for preserving and protecting the materials in the PARADISEC collections very seriously. These responsibilities include safeguarding the interests and sensitivities of the indigenous people to whom any material in the collections relates. If you sign this form, you should be clear that -

- (i) you empower PARADISEC to decide over questions of access to, and use of, the material; and
- (ii) PARADISEC will make those decisions in accordance with its duties to safeguard the interests and sensitivities of the relevant community.

If you wish to proceed, please fill in the preceding paragraphs. You will see that they seek information on -

- your personal details (part A)
- details of the material being deposited (part B)
- access to the material (part C)
- the deposit (part E)

The deposit of the material with PARADISEC is effected by your signing the document at part E.
